

Graphic Designer

Family Life Ministries has an opening for an experienced graphic designer working in Family Life's creative services department. Family Life is a ministry that has several internal ministries operating out of Bath, NY. The creative services department serves these ministries directing a standard of Family Life branding and assisting in graphic design, web design and services, video production, ad creation, billboard creation, publication creation, and any other media that branding of the overall parent ministry may apply.

Applicant must be proficient in Adobe CS4 suite applications such as Photoshop, Indesign, and Illustrator. Applicant must also know Microsoft Publisher. Applicant must have the ability to work with a CMS (content management system for fln.org) and have some knowledge of editing html. Applicant must have the ability to artistically and creatively design multiple forms of print and web media, plan and meet deadlines. Applicant should be familiar with both Mac and PC platforms.

Applicant should have an understanding of the concept of corporate branding.

Applicant should have some decent ability with a SLR digital camera (such as Cannon xsi Rebel), and editing of digital photography, understand how to operate & complete complex photography assignments.

Applicant must also have a fun-loving and positive personality, and sense an overwhelming call from God to use their skills and life to advance His work. Professionalism, personality, and a passion to serve characterize Family Life Employees. E-mail sample work and resume to johncarter@fln.org or mail to Family Life Network; POB 506; Bath, NY 14810, attention John Carter.

Video Producer

Family Life Ministries has an opening for an experienced Video Producer working in Family Life's creative services department. Family Life is a ministry that has several internal ministries operating out of Bath, NY. The creative services department serves these ministries directing a standard of Family Life branding and assisting in graphic design, web design and services, video production, ad creation, billboard creation, publication creation, and any other media that branding of the overall parent ministry may apply.

Applicant should have an understanding of operating a professional HD video cameras (such as Sony hvr v1u HD camera, Cannon xsi Rebel), understand proper camera lens application, lighting a set, migrating raw video & editing in Final Cut pro (Proficient in Mac & PC OS's) for web or DVD production. Applicant must understand and have the ability to see a video project through from its inception to the end by storyboarding, creatively collaborating with a director, & implementing several creative ideas. Applicant should also have some understanding of applications such as LiveType, Motion, Soundtrack Pro, Compressor, Color, and DVD Studio Pro.

Applicant should have some audio editing abilities.

Applicant should have an understanding of the concept of corporate branding.

Applicant must also have a fun-loving and positive personality, and sense an overwhelming call from God to use their skills and life to advance His work. Professionalism, personality, and a passion to serve characterize Family Life Employees. E-mail demo link (VIMEO please) and resume to johncarter@fln.org or mail to Family Life Network; POB 506; Bath, NY 14810, attention John Carter.